

SUIT AGAINST PEARY FOR $10,000

Brought in Berlin By Rudolph Francke, Who was Associated with Dr. Cook in the Arctic

PEARY REFUSED TO TAKE THE PAPERS

When They Were Served on Him by a Deputy at a Berlin Hotel Last Evening—Explorer Leaves the Matter in Hands of Ambassador Hill—Suit is for Value of Furs and Walrus and Narwhal Teeth which Peary Demanded as Price of Transporting Francke to America.

Berlin, June 8.—Rudolph Francke, who was associated with Dr. Frederick A. Cook in Arctic exploration, has brought suit against Commander Robert E. Peary in the sum of $10,000. This amount is estimated as half the value of furs and walrus and narwhal teeth which Francke bought from natives in the Arctic regions, upon arrangement with Peary, who said they should share them half and half.

Why the Suit Was Brought. According to Francke's statements, Commander Peary found him seriously ill at Etah, owing to a fall on a glacier, and took advantage of this circumstance to demand the entire collection as the price of transporting him to America. Francke claimed that he did not act of his own free will but by compulsion, and says that Peary set aside a part of the collection to present to ex-President Roosevelt.

ORDINATION EXERCISES AT BERKELEY DIVINITY SCHOOL

Candidates Ordained to the Deaconate by Bishop Brewster.

Middletown, June 8.—The fifty-sixth annual ordination exercises at Berkeley divinity school were held today, a large body of alumni being in attendance. The candidates ordained to the deaconate by Bishop Brewster were R. J. Mulford, headmaster Ridgefield school, and James Cunningham, Trinity and the general theological seminary, W. B. Hawk, Lafayette college and Berkeley divinity school; and Arthur H. Kinney, Berkeley.

After the laying on of hands and the communion, the new deacons were assigned to their respective churches. Ridgefield, Mr. Cunningham at St. George's church, New York; Mr. Hawk at St. Paul's church, New York; Mr. Kinney at Christ church, New Haven. Jay Preston Storer, a graduate this year of the divinity school, has been appointed assistant pastor of the church, Georgetown parish, D. C.

At the meeting of the alumni Bishop Brewster was re-elected president.

SEEKING TO CONNECT PATTEN WITH BULL POOL IN COTTON.

Fact Brought Out by Clash Before Special Federal Grand Jury.

New York, June 8.—From a statement made before Judge Hand in the United States circuit court today, by Special United States Attorney General McKercher, it became definitely known for the first time that the government is investigating the alleged bull pool in cotton. A clash before the special federal grand jury, which is investigating the matter, which was aired before Judge Hand brought out this fact. Charles A. Kittle, member of the banking and brokerage firm of Kittle, Bell & company, who had been summoned as a witness, refused to be sworn on the ground that the investigation was directed against him. McKercher denied this, saying that James A. Eaton and others were named.

SUDDEN DEATH IN HOTEL

Became Known When Will Was Filed in Probate Court.

Chicago, June 8.—The sudden death of Mrs. Fannie Steele in a Chicago hotel last Monday became known today when Mrs. Steele's will was filed in the probate court. It was reported, under her for $100,000 for breach of promise some time ago, received $25,000 by Mrs. Steele. The estimated value of the estate is $500,000.

Accotia was in Chicago on Monday and is said to have been at Mrs. Steele's bedside when she died. Death is reported to have been caused by apoplexy.

FAREWELL DINNER IN LONDON

At Residence of Whitelaw Reid to Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt.

London, June 8.—Dorchester house, the residence of Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador, was the scene today of two functions in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt—a reception in the afternoon to the members of the Pilgrims' American societies, and a farewell dinner tonight. Both were quiet affairs on account of the court mourning and the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Reid are in mourning for the late Orson Mills.

Battleship Georgia to Take on the Connecticut Militia.

Washington, June 8.—Beekman Winthrop, assistant secretary of the navy, in charge of naval militia affairs, has issued a set of instructions to Admiral Schroeder regarding the Atlantic coast naval militia on their practice cruises July 23 to 30. These instructions show that the Georgia will take on the Connecticut militia at New Haven and land them at the same place.

Pawtucket Contractors Acquitted.

Providence, June 8.—Contractors James Beach and Peter Casey, who have been on trial for a week on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the city of Pawtucket out of $4,000 in connection with deliveries of crushed stone, were acquitted by a jury in the superior court today. The case has been pending for more than a year.

Hung Himself in Police Cell.

Torrington, Conn., June 8.—Charles H. Morey of Torrington was arrested here late today and tonight was found hanging in a cell in the police station. He had torn a blanket in strips, using the strips for a rope. He was 44 and leaves a wife and three children.

Jockey Giesner Kicked in the Head.

Lafayette, Ky., June 8.—Jockey Giesner was kicked in the head when Trotter fell in the fourth race at Lafayette today and he sustained a concussion of the brain. He was removed to a hospital. His condition is critical.

Cabled Paragraphs

St. Petersburg, June 8.—The opponents of the Finnish bill giving the court legislative authority over Finland abandoned the fight today and retired from the chamber. This action assures the adoption of the measure as a whole.

London, June 8.—This was the third day of the international horse show.

Judge William H. Moore of New York was awarded the first and second prizes, with Robin Hood and Marie, respectively, in the class for single harness horses exceeding 16.2 hands, shown to a brougham. Judge Moore also won first honors with Lady Seaton and Lord Seaton in the class for pair of harness horses driven by ladies and shown to a phaeton with rumble.

VIEWS AND SKETCHES OF NORWICH, ENGLAND.

Handsome Book Received by Otis Library—Several Pages Devoted to This City.

The Otis library is in receipt of a handsome book of the Norwich, England, capital, England.

The book contains brief biographical sketches of a large number of the people who are making Norwich today, with a special chapter dealing with notabilities who made Norwich in bygone years.

The opening pages are of local views, including the Norwich cathedral, the market place and views of the city.

The biographical sketches are mostly accompanied with cuts, the first of the first lord mayor of Norwich, Right Hon. Ernest E. Blyth, LL. D.

Of local interest is the picture and sketch of Agas Henry Goose, with whom, through Jonathan Trumbull, librarian of the Otis library, many courtesies have been exchanged between Norwich, England, and its namesake, Norwich, Conn. Also of interest is the sketch of Walter Edward Hansen, who as a guest in town was much pleased with the namesake of his native town.

The two closing pages are given to Norwich, Conn., showing the principal buildings, manufactures and places of interest, as well as giving a historical sketch of the city.

Headed with a clear cut picture of the harbor, it all being taken, no doubt, from an invitation sent there for the sixtieth anniversary of the town.

Norwich, England, is a town of 111,718 in population, at the census of 1901. It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

It is a city and is governed by a lord mayor, 16 aldermen and 48 councillors.

The Anglo Saxon king, Alfred, made Norwich a royal city and capital of East Angles, it has had many royal honors conferred upon it.

The city is a very prominent one, standing out very prominently—that of 1775, when it became a royal city and in 1840, it was made a city.

John McArthur Held For Trial

IN $2,500 ON CHARGES OF GRAND LARCENY.

Formerly Financial Clerk Of the New York Children's Bureau

McArthur Arrested Yesterday

New York, June 8.—John J. McArthur, formerly financial clerk of the children's bureau of the department of public charities, was arrested today and held for trial in $2,500 bonds on charges of grand larceny preferred by Commissioner of Accounts Fosdick.

The Specific Charge.

The affidavit which the warrant was granted instances the specific larceny of $30 from $50 paid over by a father for the support of his three children, who were in city institutions and clothes with this statement:

"The deponent, Raymond B. Fosdick, has proof of appointing a similar case of similar appropriations."

Mr. McArthur is now a bookkeeper in the New York Children's Bureau.

Fosdick says that his resignation from the department of public charities was requested by the superintendent of the children's bureau on January 21, 1910.

PROSECUTION OF HEIKE.

THE GOVERNMENT SUMMED UP.

Testimony of Spitzer Bitterly Assailed by Counsel Lexow.

New York, June 8.—With all the evidence in the government's case today in the prosecution of Charles H. Heike, secretary of the American War Relieving company, Ernest W. Gerbracht, superintendent of the Williamsburg docks of the company, and James F. Bockmeyer, former cashier of the company, the government charged with conspiracy in the weighing frauds uncovered by Special Agent.

The testimony of Oliver Spitzer, who dramatically appeared in court as a witness, was bitterly assailed by Lexow, who said in his closing argument that he was not only a witness but a participant in the fraud.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce" and that the jury should acquit the defendants.

He said that the government's case was a "farce"